

This client was working full time while attending graduate school. Always pressed for time, his small living space was becoming unmanageable.

We helped him organize and downsize his clothing and varied belongings and then rearranged his existing furniture to achieve a functional and attractive floor plan.

Fresh new bed linens finish this simply sophisticated space.

