

An outdated living space begging to be refreshed!

After developing a design plan using the existing furniture, the space was cleared out and walls and trim were painted.

Moving the large entertainment unit to another room, we arranged the love seat and chairs into a more comfortable conversation area.

A colorful new print hangs over the fireplace, drawing visitors in to the warmth of the refreshed living space.

